Enrol Now for 2011

Don't leave it too late if you are intending to enrol for the 2011 qualifications, places are limited in both the jewellery and art and craft programmes.

Prospective students should book a pre-enrolment interview and returning students need to complete a new enrolment form.

For all enquiries phone 09 422 0752 and talk with Ruth, Rohan or Joy - also you can visit our website www.hungrycreek.ac.nz for more information.

July Exhibition

The Mid Year Graduates Exhibition was held at the Estuary Arts Centre, Orewa, 7 July - 1 August.

The graduation ceremony was held Thursday evening, 22 July.

The show looked great and it was very cool too see the graduates talent and hard work on display.

Congratulations to all the July graduates; Ria Erasmus, Ethan Lavery, Sue Moston, Paula Robinson and Shari Turton all received a Certificate in Art & Craft (Foundation). Anne Ginders graduated with the Diploma in Art & Craft.

'Creekers' in the Wallace

19 years ago James Wallace established the Annual Wallace Art Awards. These awards are now the longest surviving and largest annual art awards of their kind in New Zealand, with prizes amounting to over $160,000. The four winners receive valuable residencies at prestigious institutions. Many of the winners and finalists of the Awards are purchased by the Trust each year to add to the collection.

Just to be a finalist in the 'Wallace' is no small feat and this year two Hungry Creek students and a tutor have had their work selected for the exhibition.

Congratulations to Elke Finkenauer (Yr3), Carlie Blanchett-Burton (Yr3) and Anna T Mc Leod (Hungry Creek sculpture and art history tutor).

In 2007 Hungry Creek graduate James Robinson received the Paramount Award.

This year the Paramount Award went to Sam Mitchell, and guess what... Sam is a 'Creeker', she completed the Certificate in Art & Craft here in 1992.

Rodney District Art Awards

What a thrilling evening it was for us 'Creekers' at the opening of the Rodney District Art Awards on Thursday night, September 2nd.

Supreme Award went to Flora Sekanova, Diploma in Art & Craft (Advanced) jewellery major, for her fabulous jewellery necklace made from laminated paper (pictured).

Flora was a finalist in the New Zealand Jewellery Show, contemporary section, Regal Casting Jewellery Design competition. She is originally from Slovakia and is an international student enrolled at the North Shore jewellery campus.

Winner of the oil painting section was Alan Croggon, Hungry Creek life drawing tutor and Diploma in Art & Craft graduate.

Winner of the jewellery section was Jeannette Switzer, Hungry Creek graduate, Diploma in Art & Craft.

Winner of the mixed media section was Sue Hill, Hungry Creek graduate, Diploma in Art & Craft.

Congratulations to all of you. We are very proud of your achievements.

We were thrilled to see so many 'Creekers' participate in the show, including current full time students - Elke Finkenauer, Mi-Young Choi, Waiata Riddell, Amanda Williams, Rob Maguiness, Michelle Hughes, Ria Erasmus. Graduates - Richard Duhs, Susannah Law, Nicola Woods, Adam Grimwood, Jo Bain, Linley Quinlan, Terry Haines, Zan Charlafl, Rohan Arlidge. Part time students - Joy Richards, Neil Sheat. Past students - Sally Lush, Mandy Moon. Past tutor - Ursula Cranmer.

Flora got Talente

Talente is an international exhibition that takes place each March during the annual international trades and craft fair in Munich, Germany. It showcases young designers and makers from around the world in craft-object, jewellery, textiles, furniture, glass, ceramics, industrial design and fashion. Flora's jewellery has been accepted for exhibition there, 16 - 22 March 2011. Congratulations Flora.

Getting the Art Out There

Richard Darbyshire (HC Tutor) solo show titled Ancestry at the Art Matakana gallery, 14 - 29 August. His new work is a mix of large and small paintings featuring the tree as a metaphor for time and place, and the brevity/continuity of our lives. Beautiful paintings with a 'victorian' edge.

The Emergency exhibition, 4 - 25 July, was a show by a group of HC students who took the opportunity to exhibit their work at the Old Post Office Gallery in Devonport. Thanks to Eddie de Heer, the gallery owner, for providing the space free of charge. Congratulations to Elke Finkenauer, Phillip Ball, Carlie Blanchett-Burton, Amanda Williams, Rob Maguiness and Waiata Riddell for taking the initiative to organise and promote the exhibition.

Michael Anderson (Yr 2) and Russell Kim (Yr 4) had a two man show titled New Colours, 9-16 July at the 150 Club: Student Gallery, Eden Terrace. The 150 Club was an initiative of William Koo (Yr1) but unfortunately has since closed. It was good while it lasted.

Sophie Taylor-Brockie, graduate, Diploma in Art & Craft, jewellery major, exhibited her new work at Masterworks Gallery, Jewellery Box Showcase, 19 August - 5 September - "Recent Hungry Creek graduate combines jewellery and costume making skills, making wearable textile pieces incorporating precious stones and mixed media"

Flora Sekanova also had a show at Masterworks Gallery in the Jewellery Box Showcase. Flora's exhibition ran from 16 September - 5 October. Sekanova reconstitutes newspaper into jewellery objects with a unique tactile quality. "Treating the material to take on the resemblance of wood holds significance for me as I am interested in the notion of this ubiquitous material returning to its origins".

Anna T. McLeod, Hungry Creek sculpture, professional studies and art history tutor, has exhibited in two group shows this year. Come Fly With Me, 29 May - 10 June at The Depot Artspace, Devonport, and Chinese Whispers 8 - 11 September, Gallery Three, Symonds St. Anna was also a finalist in the Wallace Art Awards.

Alexis Neal, Hungry Creek design and art history tutor, has been selected as a finalist in The Bold Horizon National Contemporary Art Award, this is for New Zealand artists to appear in a national overview of artistic practice and feature in a major exhibition within the Waikato Museum. The exhibition is currently showing until 9 January 2011.

Chris Mules, Hungry Creek sculpture tutor in 2009, this year's winner of the fourth OBJECTive Art Awards, Manukau City Council's annual nationwide competition for object art, 15 Oct - 12 Nov at the city's newest gallery, Mangere Arts Centre. Congratulations Chris.

Elke Finkenauer, Carlie Blanchett-Burton and Phillip Ball had an exhibition, appropriately titled Three at the Estuary Arts Centre, Orewa, 3 - 29 October.

Elke, Phillip and Carlie continued the theme Three for their show at the Te Karanga Gallery at 208 Karangahape Road, 15 - 26 November.
